Dear Heidelberg Alumni,

You are cordially invited to join us for the 8th Annual National HAUS Meeting the weekend of September 11-13, 2015 in Snowbird, Utah. The Ski- and Summer Resort is located in Little Cottonwood Canyon within Rocky Mountain's beautiful Wasatch Mountain Range. The location is only 30 miles or 40 minutes from Salt Lake City Airport.

President Professor Dr. Bernhard Eitel looks forward to spending the weekend with the North American alumni. As geography professor, he also promised to fill us in on the ecological and environmental aspects of the Rocky Mountains and – yes – there will be a hike (and also an Aerial Train to the Mountain top). The weekend features a second speaker. Dr. Wilfried Mausbach, Executive Director of the Heidelberg Center for American Studies will provide background information and insights into the different perspectives on each side of the Atlantic as far as the balance of homeland security and privacy rights are concerned: »I Spy, you Spy, we all Spy: German-American Relations and the NSA Affair«.

Program:

The Cliff Lodge, Snowbird

SATURDAY, September 12, 2015

The Aerial Tram will take us to Hidden Peak on 11,000 feet. Enjoy the views and explore the Rockies with expert insights from Rektor and Geography Professor Bernhard Eitel. Hike down or take the Tram or the Peruvian Lift back to the Lodge. (Because of the high altitude of our 8100 feet "basecamp, we recommend taking the tram or lift up the Mountain. There is the option to hike down.) The Tram and the Hidden Peak Terminal are handicap accessible.

Snowbird presents its annual Oktoberfest Saturday and Sunday afternoon on the Snowbird Plaza. Check out the music and entertainment on the Plaza.
