Dear Heidelberg Alumni and friends,

Please join us for our next HAUS event in Los Angeles.

You are cordially invited to the Opening Reception for the exhibition “Jewish Life in Germany Today”.

The Dortort Center for Creativity in the Arts at UCLA Hillel in association with the German Consulate General Los Angeles is hosting the exhibition featuring 25 photographic panels showing a cross section of Jews living in Germany today.

Germany is fortunate to once again be home to a vibrant and thriving Jewish community, as showcased in the exhibition. In concise and striking statements, Jews explain what living in Germany means to them. From students to best-selling authors to rabbis and entrepreneurs, their biographies reflect the diversity of the German-Jewish community today.

We invite Heidelberg Alumni to arrive at 6:30 PM to meet up prior to the event to get to know each other. The actual Opening Reception will start at 7 PM.
